

Why Choose STEM

The video "Why Choose STEM" teaches you about the importance of preparing for STEM careers. You know that STEM stands for Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math, but did you know that some of the coolest jobs around require a STEM degree?

Try This!

Match the STEM career on the left with the job description on the right.

Awesome STEM Careers!

STEM Careers

STEM Career Descriptions

Music Data Journalist

Teaching computers to "see" and understand pictures and videos. Designing and building rollercoasters and other models at Legoland.

NASA Curiosity Driver

Using data to find musical trends and creating the Billboard Top 100 charts that show the most popular artists.

ESPN Statistician

Researching data to calculate sports statistics and recommending plays and tactics based on models of past data.

Professional Hacker

Navigating a robot across the surface of Mars.

Legoland Designer

Working for banks, hospitals, or even the government to break into their computer systems and tell them how you did it.

Computer Vision Engineer

STEM careers involve a lot more than just science and math. What other skills or interests do the jobs on this page require?

---

---

---